MURDER MYSTERY DRAMA PERFORMANCES COMING!!

On May 21 and 22 some Morris School students will be putting on a drama performance - a Murder Mystery with a twist - the audience gets to participate by choosing the murderer by a secret ballot during intermission.

*Admission - $5.00 adults
- $3.00 students
- 5 & under free*

There will be a silent auction as well as cookies and coffee will be sold during intermission. This event will be held in the SY gym at 7:30 both evenings.

Come out and support your local "talented performers"!!

THANKS - ANOTHER SUCCESSFUL SCHOLASTIC BOOK FAIR!!

Thanks to everyone who supported the Scholastic Book Fair during April at the Morris School. Despite the highway closures, the Book Fair was very successful, allowing the School Library to choose more than $500 in new books for the collection. We would also like to thank the following students for donating their personal books to us - Kimber Munford, Kennedy Neufeld, Brooklyn Isaac, Alicia Gauthier, Kara Rouire and Allison Swift.

MTC FINAL PERFORMANCE!!

The Boys In The Photograph - this performance is a coming-of-age story about a group of young men and women in Belfast in the late 1960's who are involved with a local soccer team at the start of a 30-year civil war. Some are drawn into the conflict, while others stand aside wanting only to be allowed to live and compassion in a powerful and passionate musical. Both funny and heartbreaking, The Boys In The Photograph pulls no punches when exploring the reality of sectarian conflict, but is nonetheless a joyous celebration of the freedom that love can bring -WARNING MATURE THEMES, STRONG LANGUAGE, THEATRICAL HAZE, FOG, GUNSHOTS, STROBE LIGHTS

The final MTC performance is May 20th - the bus leaves at 4:15 so we can actually have some "real fine dining" at a restaurant TBA. Please dress appropriately. IF you are unable to attend please notify Mrs. Derewianchuk as there is a waiting list for this popular event. It has been a great year of performances and I would like to thank the group for being so attentive and interested in the arts!!
